

Association of Nazarene Educational Systems
Asia-Pacific Region
Bali, Indonesia
21-25 August 2018

Global Education and Clergy Development

Dr. Dan Copp
Education Commissioner
Global Clergy Development Director
dcopp@nazarene.org

Global Education and Clergy Development Committee of the General Board

“give oversight to the global educational enterprise, IBOE, clergy preparation, clergy development, and other such interests related to education and ministry.”

(2009 BGS White Paper)

“shall have policy oversight for the International Board of Education, Clergy Development, and for other matters assigned by the General Board.”

(2014 General Board Policy Manual)

To make Christlike Disciples in the Nations

Global Education and
Clergy Development

International
Board
Of
Education
(IBOE)

International
Course of Study
Advisory Committee
(ICOSAC)

Regional Education Coordinators

Africa – Gabriel Benjiman

Asia-Pacific – John Moore

Eurasia – Stéphane Tibi

Mesoamerica – Rubén Fernandez

South America – Jorge Julca

USA/Canada – Dean Blevins

Global Ministry Center Staff

Education

Tammy Condon

Barb Najarian

Dana Porter

Clergy Development

Stan Rodes

Krista Fischer

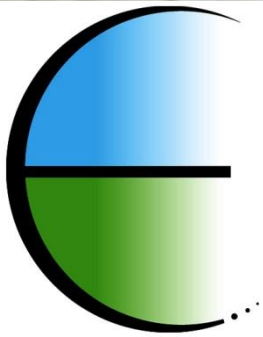

Darlene Friend

Dan Copp

Education Commissioner

Global Clergy Development Director

INTERNATIONAL
BOARD OF EDUCATION
Church of the Nazarene

52 Colleges, Universities and Seminaries
120 World Areas
50,799 Students

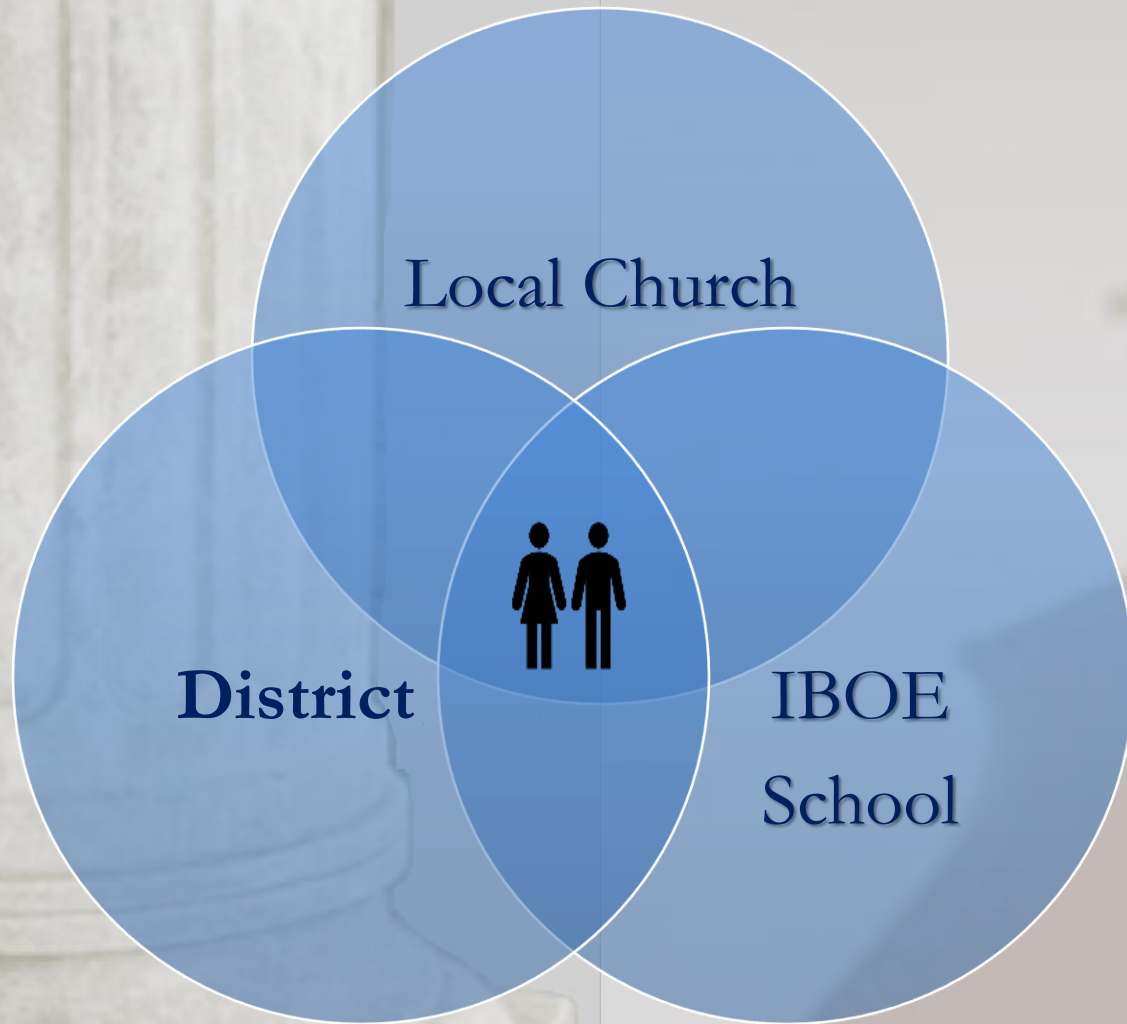

19,346 in ministerial preparation

18,769 ordained

38,115
ministers

GECD Synergistic Partnership

Some of the Challenges & Opportunities for Global Education & Clergy Development

Increasing role of decentralization

Changes to school funding/business models

Better connecting our local church/district/school

Improving support of our women clergy

Improving intentional leadership development

Improving intentional theological coherence

Increasing role of decentralization

Increasing role of decentralization

Increasing role of decentralization

Changes to school funding/business models

Changes to school funding/business models

Changes to school funding/business models

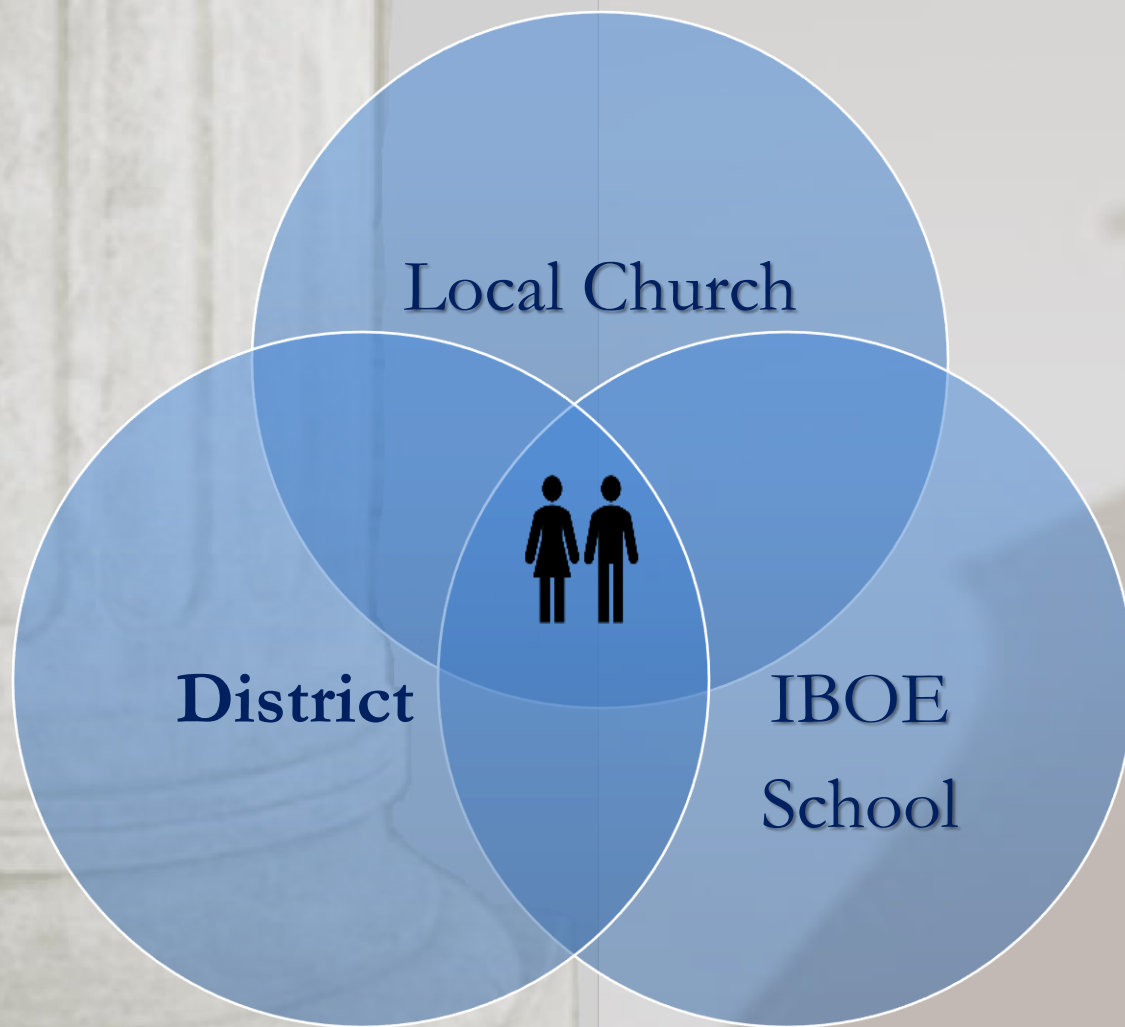

WILLIAM PETERSONS BUILDING

Better connecting our local church/district/school

Some of the Challenges & Opportunities for Global Education & Clergy Development

Increasing role of decentralization

Changes to school funding/business models

Better connecting our local church/district/school

Improving support of our women clergy

Improving intentional leadership development

Improving intentional theological coherence

Some of the Initiatives & Resources

Education Systems Support

Lifelong Learning Global Self-Registry

Quality & Missional Reviews

Theology Conferences & Strategic Consultations

Identifying & Communicating Best Practices

Review/Resource Course of Study Validation Process

Review/Resource Annual Reporting Process

Review/Resource Educational Institution Changes

Orienting Commitments

- Foundational Commitment to Mission
- Visionary Commitment to listen & discern well, to remain adaptable, and to seek partnerships.
- Relentless Commitment to Steward & Align Resources to Fulfillment of Mission
- Deepening Commitment to Traditioned Imagination & Innovation

Global Education and Clergy Development

Dr. Dan Copp
Education Commissioner
Global Clergy Development Director
dcopp@nazarene.org

Questions... Observations... Discussion...